

FBT YEAR ENDS TODAY – 31.03.23

Key thing you and your employees need to do TODAY

On today's date, 31 March 2023, the 2023 Fringe Benefits Tax (FBT) year ends.

We will send you a separate email about further action that is required in relation to your FBT obligations.

Immediate action is required if your business provides motor vehicles to any Directors or employees?

If so, at the end of TODAY (31st March 2023) when they have finished travel for the day, can you please arrange that each driver take a photo of the odometer readings in their vehicles with their phone camera and email it to a nominated person in your business. This will ensure you have accurate odometer readings as at today's date. This information will be needed when you complete the FBT Questionnaire that we will send to you in a separate email.

For further information on this or any other FBT requirements, please contact our Rockhampton or Emerald offices.
